

Inversions 4

RESTRICTIVE ADVERBS

1. I had barely entered the room, when I was called.

(1) _____
_____.

2. I have hardly ever gone out this term.

(2) _____
_____.

3. I had never been in Britain before, that's why I enjoyed so much
Never before

(3) _____

4. The Receptionist couldn't solve any of my problems
None of

(4) _____

5. The Manager didn't appear once at the hotel
Not once

(5) _____

6. When he realized the hotel was not the same as in the brochure, he phoned the company
No sooner

(6) _____

7. They chose neither Majorca nor Ibiza.
Neither

(7) _____

8. He hardly had experience, when he was left with all the responsibility.

(8) _____

9. Everybody saved their lives out of dumb luck
Out of

(9) _____

10. The door mustn't be closed until 9:00.
Not until

(10) _____

9:00 must the door be closed Barely had I entered the room, when I was called did he realize the hotel was not the same as in the brochure, when he phoned the company did the Manager appear at the hotel dumb luck did everybody save their lives had I been in Britain, that's why I enjoyed so much Hardly did he have experience, when he was left with all the responsibility. Hardly ever have I gone out this term Majorca nor Ibiza did they choose my problems could the Receptionist solve XXXX

-----Clave-----

Inversions4

RESTRICTIVE ADVERBS

1. I had barely entered the room, when I was called.
Barely had I entered the room, when I was called.
2. I have hardly ever gone out this term.
Hardly ever have I gone out this term.
3. I had never been in Britain before, that's why I enjoyed so much
Never before had I been in Britain, that's why I enjoyed so much
4. The Receptionist couldn't solve any of my problems
None of my problems could the Receptionist solve
5. The Manager didn't appear once at the hotel
Not once did the Manager appear at the hotel
6. When he realized the hotel was not the same as in the brochure, he phoned the company
No sooner did he realize the hotel was not the same as in the brochure, when he phoned the company
7. They chose neither Majorca nor Ibiza.
Neither Majorca nor Ibiza did they choose
8. He hardly had experience, when he was left with all the responsibility.
Hardly did he have experience, when he was left with all the responsibility.
9. Everybody saved their lives out of dumb luck
Out of dumb luck did everybody save their lives
10. The door mustn't be closed until 9:00.
Not until 9:00 must the door be closed XXXX