Tourism 4

Crossword

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14
Across:

1. Selling at a higher price
2. Description of a journey, showing dates and times, mode of transport, places visited and activities.
3. Coupon usually issued by a tour operator or travel agent to cover such prepaid elements of a trip as accommodation and meals, given by the guest on arrival at the hotel.
4. Any person or organization that transports goods/or people
5. A railway carriage; also in the UK, a road motor vehicle operating long distance services or tours to be distinguished from a bus.
6. Condition experienced by people flying long distances across a number of time zones and caused by the disruption of the natural rhythms of the human body.
7. An adjective used in transport when referring to a regular service between two points operated according to a timetable (schedule).
8. An adjective used for an extraordinary service between two points operated by a company that hires the transport.
9. Recreational walking, particularly in open and wild country, and covering both day trips and extended vacations. Similar to bush walking and trekking, which are both a physical challenge and a way of seeing much attractive scenery.
10. Large ship or plane for passengers, for regular scheduled service on given routes
11. Colloquial term for food, such as sandwiches, pies, salads and fast food.
12. Road round a town providing an alternative route through traffic; also, in USA selling by transport and tour operators direct to customers without the use of travel agents, known as direct selling in the UK.
13. place to which people go for holidays and recreation.

Down:

2. Description of a journey, showing dates and times, mode of transport, places visited and activities.
3. Coupon usually issued by a tour operator or travel agent to cover such prepaid elements of a trip as accommodation and meals, given by the guest on arrival at the hotel.
4. Any person or organization that transports goods/or people
5. A railway carriage; also in the UK, a road motor vehicle operating long distance services or tours to be distinguished from a bus.
6. Condition experienced by people flying long distances across a number of time zones and caused by the disruption of the natural rhythms of the human body.
7. An adjective used in transport when referring to a regular service between two points operated according to a timetable (schedule).
8. An adjective used for an extraordinary service between two points operated by a company that hires the transport.
9. Recreational walking, particularly in open and wild country, and covering both day trips and extended vacations. Similar to bush walking and trekking, which are both a physical challenge and a way of seeing much attractive scenery.
10. Large ship or plane for passengers, for regular scheduled service on given routes
11. Colloquial term for food, such as sandwiches, pies, salads and fast food.
12. Road round a town providing an alternative route through traffic; also, in USA selling by transport and tour operators direct to customers without the use of travel agents, known as direct selling in the UK.
13. place to which people go for holidays and recreation.