Across:

2 A slight sense of confusion and tiredness that people experience after a long journey in an aeroplane, especially after arriving in a place where the time is several hours different from the place they left.

4 The point at which passengers can board their flights.

6 Technical-sounding equivalent word to aeroplane.

8 More luggage than is allowed according to the weight allowance permitted by the passenger's ticket.

10 A passenger's personal property that he is taking with him on a trip.

11 Passengers have to do this before boarding a flight.

Down:

1 An air journey.

3 Person whose job is to carry people's luggage at an airport or station.

5 A schedule which shows the times at which aeroplanes arrive and depart.

7 It refers to travel within one country.

9 The price charged for transportation.